Priorities for Future

- Continue to develop institutionalized international cooperation at the level of departments and the Faculty in education and research.
- Promote international cooperation in the European and non-European education and research by establishing partnerships within the opportunities offered by the EU grant schemes.
- Promote further development of international cooperation in mobility programmes, in particular Erasmus+ programme, in two lines, by concluding new agreements and increasing the number of students and teachers, both incoming and outgoing.

Priorities for Future

- Support language education of international students of UPJŠ faculties in order to develop their language skills, especially in specialized terminology, including Slovak and English as a foreign language, in connection with the implemented projects (e.g. EXPERT, DISAC).
- Seek opportunities to expand and strengthen the current membership of the Faculty of Arts of UPJŠ and its organizational units in international scientific organizations, networks, consortia, international advisory and evaluation bodies.
